

The Herald and News

E. H. AULL, EDITOR.

A gentleman in Saluda County told us the other day that he would be willing to pay $25 a year for ten years if the road from the steel bridge to Newberry were put in such condition that it would be good all the year round. This would necessitate some macadam, some gravel and some mixing of sand and clay. This it seems to us should arouse our people to the importance of doing something. This man does his trading and his banking at Newberry and is a large farmer and his coming here is to the interest of our people because he spends his money with them. We should provide every facility to make it easy for these people in Saluda to come to Newberry. The Saluda side of Saluda County is a good farming section and the farmers as a rule are prosperous, and it is to the interest of the Newberry merchants to encourage this trade in every legitimate manner. No better evidence could be given that we appreciate this business than to make the roads so that it would not be a burden to come to town.

In a trip to Saluda County last week we met a large number of wagons loaded with cotton coming to Newberry to market and in the afternoon we met these same wagons returning home loaded with the wares of the merchants of Newberry. Good roads would encourage these people to continue to come to Newberry.

We understand that Alderman Langford who was not present at the meeting of council when it was decided to lay a brick pavement on Friend Street from Caldwell to the depot has protested against the work being done though the brick have been put in place and the work commenced. He is the alderman from Ward 4, in which this part of Friend Street is located.

This is one of the most frequented streets in the city leading direct from the hotels to the depots and we had hoped the council could pave it like Main Street, and we must believe our information is incorrect as to the protest of Alderman Langford. The work is being done with the brick taken up on Main Street and we cannot understand how any one could object to making a good brick sidewalk on this street. If it is true, however, council should proceed with the work regardless of the protest. This is a street that interests the people of the entire city, and if a good sidewalk is needed in any part of the city, this is the one.

We are informed that children under ten years of age are permitted to work in our mills in this county contrary to the provisions and in violation of the law passed by the last session of the Legislature. We trust this is not correct, but if it is, the parties responsible for it should be made to suffer the penalties provided in the Act. Certainly it is true that there are many children in all of our mills who ought to be at school during the public school term.

Senator Latimer is out west advocating government aid for road building. He proposes that the general government shall appropriate $500,000,000 for the public roads and that a like amount shall be raised by the States. If this could be done it would mean a revolution in the matter of road improvement and would be money well spent, but we believe if we are to have any roads in this country it is not wise to wait on government aid, but we had better go ahead and build them ourselves. At least we should make the start.

We read in the Charleston News and Courier that eight miles of road have been built out from Newberry Court House, S. C., by the county chain-gang, at a cost of $350, and that "for a distance of three and a half miles the road has been gravelled from six to twelve inches thick." This is the cheapest road building ever heard of.—Charlotte Observer.

This is correct according to the statement of the Supervisor. It is a good road, but as we have had occasion to say before, it needs to be graded, and if this had been done it would be a good road. It is a vast improvement over the road as it was before and only demonstrates that we could have some good roads in this county at a very small cost if we would. And that it would not bankrupt the county.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS.

Items of More or Less Interest Condensed in the State.

The body of Lizzie Jackson, white, an operative in a cotton mill at Orangeburg, was found in a well in the factory quarter of that city on Friday. It is supposed the woman had been suffering from physical ailment which drove her to suicide. The members of her family had missed her Friday morning but did not know what the trouble was until her body was found.

The six-year-old daughter of Mr. Hilton Rollings, of Lancaster county, was accidentally burned to death on Monday of last week. Her clothes caught fire while she was sitting by the fire-place cracking hickory nuts.

A monument to the Confederate soldiers of South Carolina was unveiled at Greenwood on Friday. The dedicatory address was delivered by Judge Wm. T. Gary, of Augusta, Ga. The monument was erected by the Ladies' Memorial Association of Greenwood.

Jeweler.

A LARGE NUMBER of town houses are going to be painted in the near future with the Longman & Martinez L. & M Pure Paints.

Houses when painted with these paints never grow shabby even after 18 to 21 years.

4 gallons of Longman & Martinez Paints, and 3 Gallons Linseed Oil added, will paint a moderate sized residence.

The manufacturers give liberal quantities of L. & M. Paint to Churches.

These Celebrated Paints are sold by the Newberry Hardware Co.

Letter to Dr. W. G. Houscal,
Newberry, S. C.

Dear Sir: You understand chemistry. how'd you like to earn $1,000?

Devote lead and zinc—that's the name of our paint that takes fewer gallons than mixed paint and wears twice as long as lead and oil, is made of white-lead, white-zinc, its color, turpentine dryer, and linseed oil.

If any chemist finds any adulteration in this paint we'll pay his bill and $1000 besides.

It's nobody's business what we put in our paint, of course; but we want it known. For lead-and-zinc and linseed oil, ground together by machinery, are the stuff to paint with; and lead and oil mixed by hand is not.

We want it known that one word describes the best paint in the world; and that word is Devoc.

Are you going to paint?

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOC & Co.,
New York.

P. S.—The Newberry Hardware Co., sell our paint.

First Cost Not the Cheapest.

The first cost of an article does not necessarily determine its cheapness. For instance, a sack of "Clifton" flour may cost you a little more than other so-called patent flours, but it will be cheaper to you in the end. Why? Because it will not only make more bread to the sack, but will take less lard and soda to make it. Order a sack of "Clifton" and make a test for yourself. It will prove the truth of this statement.

A BRILLIANT EVENT.

The Beautiful Marriage Of Dr. C. D. Weeks and Miss Nancy Pool in The First Baptist Church Thursday Evening.

Dr. C. D. Weeks and Miss Nancy Pool, both of this city, were married on Thursday evening, in the First Baptist church, by the Rev. George A. Wright.

The marriage was the most brilliant social event of the year in Newberry, and the nuptials attracted a distinguished bridal party.

The bride and groom are very popular and highly esteemed at home and wherever they are known. Miss Pool is the eldest daughter of Mr. T. C. Pool, and is a native of Newberry. Dr. Weeks is a native of Sumter, but has lived in Newberry for the past several years, and as a member of the drug firm of Gilder and Weeks has made himself known as one of the city's staunchest and most progressive business men.

The marriage ceremony was performed in the First Baptist church at half after eight o'clock.

The maid of honor was Miss Azile Pool.

The best man was Mr. Jas. N. McCaughrin.

The bridesmaids were Miss Gordon Weeks, Miss Helen Mower, Miss Thyra Schumpert, Miss Lucy Speers, Miss Anita Grimsley, of Culpepper, Va.; Miss Carrie Pool, Miss Neville Pope and Miss Linda Welch.

The groomsmen were Mr. W. H. White, Abbeville; Mr. W. E. Pelham, Jr, Mr. L. G. Eskridge, Mr. H. A. Copeland, Union; Mr. F. N. Martin, Mr. J. E. Renwick, Union; Mr. Haskell Wright, Mr. Z. F. Wright.

The ushers were Mr. G. F. Wearn, Mr. T. H. Pope, Mr. I. H. Hunt and Mr. J. Y. McFall.

The church was beautiful in its carpeting of white and its decorations of garlands of evergreens and white chrysanthemums.

The rostrum, lighted by numberless candles, was banked with stands of pot plants, over which hung the marriage bell made of lovely white chrysanthemums, and to this was fastened a long white ribbon and the bell, as the bridal party entered and throughout the whole ceremony, was swayed to and fro by the bride's lovely little sister, Mary Frances Pool, producing a most charming effect.

The attendants came down the two aisles under small pointed arches and stood in a semicircle on each side. Just in front of the rostrum was a pointed arch and from it was suspended double hearts of white chrysanthemums, under which the happy couple was made one.

The bride was gowned in a lovely white satin crepe and plaited chiffon en traine. The waist was elaborately embroidered and trimmed, with a deep hand-lace berth. The veil was looped with a sunburst of pearl, and white carnations. The bride's bouquet was also of white carnations.

The maid of honor, Miss Azile Pool, was attired in white point d'esprit over taffeta, with white ribbons; she carried pink carnations.

The bridesmaids wore gowns of organdie, richly trimmed; they all carried white chrysanthemums, with long loops of white ribbon.

After the church ceremonial a large reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The hospitable home was converted into a floral bower for the happy occasion.

The dining room was "a thing of beauty." The table was lavishly decorated with bride roses, smilax, ferns, exquisite Battenberg lace and artistically trimmed cakes.

The array of elegant presents bespoke the widespread popularity of the pair; the sitting room was filled with beautiful cutglass of every design, silverware, china and every conceivable thing, both for use and ornament.

Among the guests from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. L. W. White, Mr. W. H. White, Mrs. C. D. Milford, Miss Mamie Lou Smith, all of Abbeville; Miss Kittie Bryant, Franklin, Va., and Miss Anita Grimsley, Culpepper, Va. I.
